RESPONSIBLE & PROUD WITH THE COTTON BUDS TECHNOLOGY

Over 50 years of experience, we are proud to be a manufacturer of cotton buds with leading technology of Japan. From the very beginning, we were committed to "products that satisfy our customers' tastes". In other words, we are responsible for each of our products and are proud to always meet the needs and satisfy customers.

This policy leads us to always develop products to create products that exceed customer expectations. At the same time, constantly innovating technology, improving product quality to satisfy the most demanding customers. Additionally, Sanyo products always give customers the feeling of "Peace of Mind - Safe" and the most comfortable to use.

As you know, today in the world and in Vietnam, there are still many poor quality cotton buds being displayed and sold, typically those with plastic spindles that are easily broken during use, or cotton is slipped, non-uniform cotton size or no antimicrobial agent... all these factors not only damage the ears but also affect the health of the users.
